I strongly believe that cellular phones should be prohibited on airplanes while in-flight. They would be extremely distracting and also pose a great threat since terrorists could use them as means of communication. Do not take this subject lightly because it can impact millions and millions of people and thier lives. Thank you-
United Airlines employee.